About the Museum of Art - DeLand

Mission
 The Museum of Art - DeLand is a vital and interactive 501(c)3 non-profit visual arts museum dedicated to the collection, preservation, study, exhibition and educational use of the fine arts. The Museum is host to several rotating exhibits, gallery talks and receptions, educational programming, master artist workshops and special events throughout the year. Now in its sixth decade, the Museum of Art - DeLand is recognized statewide by its peers for academic excellence and community outreach. The Museum's staff and trustees work together to serve residents of Volusia County each year through numerous enriching experiences.
